

Introduction

The NEBOSH National General Certificate has been recognised for many years as the basis for a sound, broad introduction to the fundamentals of occupational health & safety.

Aim

To provide a basic knowledge and understanding of occupational health & safety.

Outcomes

Delegates will be prepared for the examination leading to the NEBOSH National General Certificate, which covers:

- Health & Safety Foundations
- Policy
- Organising for Health & Safety
- Promoting a positive Health & Safety culture
- Risk Assessment
- Principals of Control
- Movement of People & Vehicles, Hazards & Control
- Manual & Mechanical Handling, Hazards & Control
- Work Equipment, Hazards & Control
- Electrical, Hazards & Control
- Fire, Hazards & Control
- Chemical & Biological Health, Hazards & Control
- Physical & Psychological Health, Hazards & Control
- Construction Activities, Hazards & Control
- Incident Investigation, Recording & Reporting
- Monitoring, Review & Audit

Suitable for: Managers, supervisors and anyone intending to specialise in health & safety.

Prior Knowledge/training: None required

Course Duration:

12 days including exams and practical, split as follows:

Week 1 Unit NGC1: The management of health and safety

Week 2 Unit NGC2: Controlling workplace hazards

Followed by the practical assessment (1 day) and written exams (1day)

Numbers: Minimum 8, maximum 12

